

Take on Mission Everest Base Camp from 1st to 18th April 2010 and help empower the underprivileged women of Pakistan. To take part in this deserving and exciting mission, please fill in the registration form or email rubina@dil.org or join the facebook page

This breathtaking trek will take us past ancient Buddhist temples, into the Patan Durbar square known for its Newari architecture through some of the most picturesque villages in the heart of Nepal's Sherpa country, to the Namche Bazaar valley.

Take the vacation of a lifetime and help educate Pakistan's under-privileged women

DIL Trust UK presents
MISSION EVEREST BASE CAMP APRIL 2010

with
The Mountain Company
On

1st- 18th April 2010

Follow updates on:

www.diltrustuk.org.uk or www.themountaincompany.co.uk

<http://www.facebook.com/home.php?#/event.php?eid=115425696571>

The trek continues high above the clouds meandering past the Dudh Khosi River through the rhododendron forest and on to Kala Patthar with spectacular views of Mt. Everest. At 5500 meters, it presents a unique opportunity to explore the outstanding beauty of the Annapurna region, culminating at the Everest Base Camp.

